

Agreement for Working with Jill Loree, Pathwork Helper

From Pathwork lecture #204, called What is the Path:

“This Pathwork is not psychotherapy, although aspects of it must necessarily deal with areas psychotherapy also deals with. In the framework of the Pathwork, the psychological approach is only a side issue, a way of getting through obstructions.

It is essential to deal with confusions, inner misconceptions, misunderstandings, destructive attitudes, alienating defenses, negative emotions, and paralyzed feelings, all of which psychotherapy also attempts to do and even posits as its ultimate goal.

In contrast, the Pathwork enters its most important phase only after this first stage is over. The second and most important phase consists of learning how to activate the greater consciousness dwelling within every human soul.”

As a Pathwork Helper, my goal is to help you activate the divinity that dwells in your soul. We will do this by drawing from the teachings in the Pathwork lectures. Our work together—whether in individual sessions, groups or classes—may include various spiritual practices including movement, meditation and journaling.

I am not a psychotherapist. I may advise a worker with serious psychological problems (such as psychosis, severe depression, suicidal ideation or severe anxiety) to seek a licensed therapist. It is the worker’s responsibility to find the appropriate care.

I am not a medical doctor. Nothing I say or suggest should be construed as medical advice. It is the worker’s responsibility to seek and follow the appropriate medical care he or she needs.

Payment should be made at the time of each group or session. Please respect individual session times by giving 24-hour notice to cancel or reschedule whenever possible.

I have read and understand this agreement. Except in the case of gross negligence or malpractice, I agree to fully release and hold harmless Jill Loree from any and all claims or liability of any kind arising out of or in connection with my session(s).
